Divorce Suit Against Alleged Gambler Charges Crooked Roulette.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 28.—A suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Cecile Martin against her husband, Almeria Martin, who is charged, conducts a gambling place at 18 South Illinois Avenue, the allegation is made that Charles M. Schwab, former president of the United States, was indicted for manipulation of a roulette wheel. Perpetration of an action brought by Mrs. Martin for alimony was made by Mrs. Martin yesterday by a representative of Jacob Gordon, a New York attorney, retained by Mrs. Martin. The defendant in the action refused to keep the papers, throwing them angrily to the floor of Young's Hotel, where he was located by the process server, Mr. Maul L. Keenan, proprietress of Young's Hotel, is mentioned as correspondent in the divorce action brought by Mrs. Martin. Not only does Mrs. Martin assert that Schwab was indicted for a fair-sized fortune by crooked means, but she declares also that all the games at Martin's place are crooked and that she stands ready to prove these assertions at the trial of the suit.

CORBENTENES LIKE RESTRANT.

Deal Makes Manchester Terminus of Great Lakes Grain Trade.

London (via Glace Bay), May 28.—While Manchester, the stronghold of Corbentenes, is coming to be regarded as a center of the grain trade, it is profiting by steamship deals which are supplied from American and Canadian granaries to the centre of Lancashire.

The Furness combination, which began with the North Atlantic Company, the Great Lakes Inland Transportation Company, the Lake Huron and Richelieu and Ontario Company, will be strengthened immediately by a pooling arrangement with three other lines to inland waters of America and Canada.

Manchester, by these working agreements, is brought into communication with the furthest reaches of Lake Superior with a single transshipment. The Montreal ship canal is making it a great grain point, and the rivalry over transatlantic passenger traffic is almost as active as competition over Dreadnoughts.

Memorial to Atwater.

Terryville, Conn., May 28.—A memorial cannon and tablet were dedicated here today to Dorence Atwater, who died here in 1862. The memorial was at Andersonville. By means of this duplicate list the graves of all the dead were located at the close of the war.

ST. REGIS MAID RETIRES ON TIPS

Returns to Europe on $6,000 She Saved in Three Years' Service at the Hotel.

New York, May 28.—With a small fortune she acquired in tips received in the three and one-half years she served as maid in the woman's parlor at the Hotel St. Regis, Miss Helen Wollan, twenty-two years old, said goodbye to New York ten days ago. She left for Europe on board the President Lincoln, of the Hamburg-American Line, and will make her future home with her mother in Vienna.

She saved $6,000 in the time she was employed at the St. Regis, and, according to employees of the hotel, the little fortune came from tips. Miss Wollan came to New York in 1907, and through Mrs. R. M. Haan, wife of the proprietor, she obtained employment in Austria. She was a linguist, speaking English, French and German. "She is a woman of culture and refinement," said one of the clerks at the St. Regis yesterday, "and when she is living in Vienna, she will be able to do so. Because of the fact that she spoke several languages she was often called upon to interpret for travelers from Europe. She made it a rule to place all the tips she received in a bank."

On board the President Lincoln Miss Wollan was a first cabin passenger. Several friends were at the Hamburg-American pier to say good-by to her. Before her departure she received many presents from wealthy women who make their home at the St. Regis. The St. Regis was to care for the hats and wraps of women who came to the dress by name every day. She could add in New York, it is said.

MOTORCYCLES COLLIDE

One Rider Is Killed and Three Are Badly Injured.

Chicago, Ill., May 28.—Speeding sixty miles an hour, four motorcycle riders collided in a pile-up on the Grandstand Race Track today. J. N. H. Dayton, Ohio, was killed, and three others were severely hurt. One, perhaps fatally, the injured, Paul J. Bailey, Indianapolis, died. The other three were Frank Hart, Springfield, Mass.; Nixon's machine ran into a fence. His body was hurled twenty feet in the air. He died of internal injuries at a hospital. Bailey suffered a fracture of skull and internal injuries, and may die. Hinkley's collarbone was broken, while Hart was only slightly bruised. All of the riders are professionals.

WOMAN BEATS SCHOOLMA'N.

Court Fines Her, but Is No Judge of Willingness in German.

Hartford, Conn., May 28.—On the technical charge of assault, which contained in attacking the village schoolma'ns, Mrs. Hanes, of Chaplin, was fined $24 by Justice of the Peace Charles E. Chester, of South Chaplin. On the charge of disturbing a public school in session, she was fined $5 and costs. She was acquitted on the charge of using abusive language, because she spoke in German, and the court could not tell whether it was abusive or not.

The testimony showed that she burst into the Chaplin schoolhouse yesterday morning, brandishing a long, heavy whip, and demanding of Miss Viola Law, the teacher, "What did you want to keep my girl after school and punish her for yesterday?"

Miss Lewis replied the law gave her the right to keep the children after school hours, and that she punished her for lying and running out of the room. Immediately Mrs. Hanes, a husky, robust German woman, began bawling the frail little teacher across the shoulders with the whip. Then two men interfered.

Juarez, Mexico, May 28.—The chief task confronting Francisco I. Madero at present was outlined by a woman to-day as to the principal object of his future conferences with Senor de la Barra, namely, the selection of the provisional Governor of fourteen States, as agreed on in the preliminary peace negotiations.

A stumbling block appeared to-day, when it was reported that the Legislature of Sonora proposed Avelino Espiridion for Governor, while Senor Madero's choice is Jose M. Maytorena for Governor and Eugenio Gayon for Vice-Governor.

Steps similar to those taken when the Coahuila Legislature recently balked at accepting Senor Carranza will be adopted. Influence again will be brought to bear on the State Legislature through President de la Barra, and insurrecto troops around Hermosillo, capital of Sonora, will receive orders to be in readiness to march on the town should the Legislature refuse to accede to Madero's wishes.

"It is true," said Senor Madero's statement, "that, as a private citizen and as chief of the political party emanating from the revolution, I am going to play an important role in the pacification of the country, but my part will be reduced merely to indicating in consonance with public opinion, the Governor of the States, agreed upon in the preliminary negotiations. Even in this I am going to collaborate with Senor de la Barra, but in no way shall I impose my wishes."

"Representing the important business of administration, it shall be he whose resolutions shall be final, for the reason why he has been designated President of the republic by the two parties is because we have full confidence in his tact, his honor and his correctness of views."

Senor Madero received a telegram to-day from Guadalupe Gonzalez, now at Zatecas, announcing the latter's resignation as provisional Governor of that State, and "all the chiefs of the insurgent forces in the State have agreed to obey immediately the order for the cessation of hostilities."

MADERO UNWRITS PLOT.

El Paso, Tex., May 28.—What is looked on by Francisco I. Madero as a well laid plan to prevent his reaching Mexico City, to overthrow his leadership and to start a counter-revolution against him was revealed to-night in the arrest of Daniel de Villares, of Mexico City.

W. F. Dunn, an American, according to a telegram received by Madero's chief military adviser, was arrested in Monterey, Mexico, by a detective, who had trailed him from El Paso. The alleged plot involves certain sums of money which were to have been paid out to Madero's military leaders. Madero, according to the details given out by him, was fully advised of the scheme, and allowed it to be encouraged. A ten days' trailing by detectives followed.

The arrests followed an effort by members of the Cientifico party to overthrow Madero. De Villares and Dunn for the last ten days, it is alleged, have been attempting to influence General Villjoen, chief military adviser to Madero, and General Pascual Orozco to desert Madero's standard.

The two chiefs secretly encouraged the conspirators until evidence could be collected to make the arrests. Dunn was arrested in Monterey to-day by order of Madero.

General Villjoen to-night declared $26,000 had been promised him if he would participate in the conspiracy. General Orozco, he said, was to get any amount he wanted. Just what complicity with the Mexican government existed in the work of the accused men General Villjoen declared, was not apparent.

General Villjoen asserted that the most prominent Cientificos were mentioned to him by both De Villares and Dunn, especially Rosendo Pinedo, leader of the Cientifico party in the Mexican Congress. The plot, he declared, was to put Pinedo in the presidency.

In their efforts to procure evidence against Dunn and De Villares, General Villjoen accepted $480 and General Orozco, $200.

Many Refugees.

El Paso, Texas, May 28.—United States mounted inspectors at El Paso, Texas, report 4,000 Mexican refugees on the American side of the river, in Presidio county. They will have to be fed by the United States government, or they will starve, the report says.

SPENDS QUIET SUNDAY.

Vera Cruz, May 28.—General Diaz spent Sunday in quiet. He rested most of the day, denying himself to visitors with the exception of members of his immediate family. He was in the window of his rooms he had glimpses of the sea breeze to-day gave great relief to the residents of this torrid port.

Crowds gathered around the house where the former President is staying, apparently on watch for any chance occurrence, and keeping close vigil, in spite of the blistering sun. There were no demonstrations, the people seemingly being content merely to discuss the situation. Sentries paced the verandas, and the whole neighborhood was looped like barracks, as every house is filled with soldiers.

An Opinion, a local newspaper, in its leading article to-day invites General Diaz to live here.

Washington, D. C., May 28.—For the first time in the history of the service, it is said, the deficit in the Post-Office Department has been entirely wiped out, and $1,000,000 surplus for the current fiscal year ending June 30 next is in the Treasury to the department's credit.

Monarchists Decline to Put Any Candidates in the Field.

Lisbon, May 28.—Perfect order prevailed to-day at the elections for the constituent Assembly, which were held throughout the country. In thirty out of fifty-one constituencies the seats were disputed by candidates of the directory of the Republican party, the Independent Republican and the Socialist parties. In the other constituencies the Regular Republicans were unopposed.

The Monarchists abstained from putting forward candidates, declaring that the elections presented no guarantee of liberty or sincerity.

The polling throughout was heavy, and the first results indicate that a majority of the 221 benches will be Regular Republicans. A few Independent Republicans and Socialists are likely to win their elections, but the general opinion is that while the government may have to meet certain divergent views of opinion in the Assembly there will be nothing like systematic opposition.

In Lisbon police patrolled the streets all night, but there were no disturbances. The balloting continued throughout the day and will continue to-morrow. The Regulars carried the day easily in this city. One woman, Dr. Beatriz Angelo, recorded her vote amid thunders of applause.

At Oporto all was peaceful. The Republicans keeping close watch on the Socialists.

It was announced that the decisions of the constituent Assembly will be confined, first, to a law defining the political powers of the republic; second, to organic laws relating to each of these powers, including an electoral law; third, to acts of dictatorship in the part of the provisional government, and fourth, to the budget.

Several of the civil governors have urged on the government modification of the separation law, and it is understood that a special bill will be introduced in the Assembly dealing with this subject.

SUED, SHE FIGHTS FOR NAME BY WIRE

Wife of Yale Athlete Sends Six-Hundred-Word Appeal to Nevada Judge.

Chicago, Ill., May 28.—A 600-word telegram to the judge hearing her case, in which is contained a demand for justice and a warning that an appeal will be taken if it is denied, is the latest weapon in divorce suits that Mrs. Louis Carver has adopted.

Mrs. Carver, the wife of Charles A. Carver, the Yale athlete, who broke all records for strength in 1909, sent the telegram to Judge French, of Fallon, Nev., before whom is pending her husband's suit against her. The telegram, in part, reads:

"I am the defendant in a suit for divorce which will be called for trial before Monday next. Hoping you are a man of honor, I am determined to make this last appeal."

"This suit was instituted against me on the day that my husband had completed his bare six months' pretended residence in Nevada. Previous to that I had a suit pending against him in our native State, Illinois, where we were married, and lived tranquilly for some time, and the judge of this court, after a full hearing, has already awarded me a final decree for separate maintenance. There is now due me more than $3,000 for alimony."

The lawyer who represents my husband informed me when he served me with process in Chicago that you would deny me temporary alimony with which to support myself during the pendency of the suit, and that you would not compel my husband to pay me sufficient money to cover my traveling expenses from Chicago to Nevada, in order that I might face my accusers and defend my honor against an unjust attack."

"I have instructed my lawyers to perfect the record so as to remove this case, eventually from the domestic wrecking institutions of your State to the Supreme Court of the United States, where I propose to have it reviewed and obtain justice if I can realize sufficient money by drudgery or by begging from the American people, who are chivalrous enough to resent a cowardly triangular conspiracy against a defenseless woman."

WIND WREAKS HAVOC

Two Boys Are Killed and Property Damage Is Heavy.

Peoria, Ill., May 28.—A windstorm to-day struck Peoria, Ill., ten miles south of Peoria, killed Clyde Saunders and Frank Woodley, boys, breaking both legs of Louis Schaefer and damaging much property.

The city pumping station was demolished. The storm from the north wrecked the plant of the Boley Ice Company. Trees were uprooted, roofs blown from houses and plate glass windows smashed in the business quarter of Peoria. The storm followed the river, and the residence part of the city escaped.

At Granite City, Ill., twenty persons were injured by the collapse of a baseball grandstand during a windstorm. Sidney Mangus suffered a broken leg and internal injuries, and twelve persons were injured by the collapse of a grandstand.

Most of the spectators fled at the approach of the storm. The grandstand was lifted bodily by the wind and hurled on a crowd of players, who were huddled behind it, seeking refuge from a bombardment of hail.

PROBING DUCKING OF STUDENT.

Officials Hear Boy Lay in Water and "Roughed" With Match Sticks.

Trenton, N. J., May 28.—The high school officials are conducting a rigid investigation into the hazing of Walter Harter, of the senior class, who was caught in a lonely spot last night by a band of juniors and thrown into the water. Harter was ducked in a shallow water and made the motions of drowning a boat with two matches as oars. After that he asserts he had to jump up and down on the canal bank and sing songs for the juniors' amusement.

Patrolman Charles H. Smith heard the shouting and laughter and tried to break up the party, who escaped. The stream in which Harter was ducked is polluted and frequently has been complained of as a nuisance. A few weeks ago a boy went bathing in it and fresh vaccination mark on his arm became infected. The boy died of lockjaw in a few days.

OBITUARY

Myer Kirsh.

Myer Kirsh, for many years one of the prominent men in the commercial and social life of Richmond, died at his residence, 2006 Monument Avenue, yesterday morning at 9:30 a. m. after a brief illness. He was not known to be ill, and his death will come as a distinct shock to his host of friends. He was son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kirsh.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two children—Alfred Kirsh and Miss Mary Kirsh. Three sisters and two brothers also survive.
